HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

Creative Coding & Web Design

I enjoy building interactive websites and exploring front-end technologies. Designing user-friendly interfaces and experimenting with new tools allows me to express creativity and solve real-world problems through code.

Deep Thinking & Problem Solving

I'm passionate about analyzing complex scenarios and thinking critically. Whether it's solving coding challenges or reflecting on new ideas, I value thoughtful approaches that lead to smart and efficient solutions.

Thanks for your time and consideration.
